Room 205

February 23, 2018

Notes from Miss Anderson

- * In Reading, we read song lyrics to practice identifying the narrator's point of view and dig deeper into the lyric's theme. Students also supported their thinking with details from the text.
- * In Writing, we read short passages and wrote stories based on what we read.
- * In Math, we reviewed topics that we have already learned this year. It is always good to brush up on our math skills. We reviewed adding multi-digit numbers, subtracting with regrouping and subtracting across zeroes, multiplication, and long division. Please continue to practice these skills at home!
- * Have a fantastic weekend!
